

David S. LeCraw

David S. LeCraw, has been an Atlanta commercial real estate broker since 1971. He is a commercial real estate practitioner, specializing in the management, leasing and sales of office, retail and industrial buildings and land use in Atlanta. In that capacity, he has operated The LeCraw Company in Norcross and Duluth since 1981.

The LeCraw Company has managed properties for a number of European partnerships and provides commercial real estate brokerage and management services as well as site selection and land utilization services to a number of other clients.

David is also involved in several professional organizations. He currently serves as a Director for the National Association of REALTORS (NAR) and the Georgia Association of REALTORS as well as serving on the 2008 NAR Credit Union Committee, the NAR 2005/2007 Strategic Planning Committee, the 2005/2007 NAR Realtors Commercial Alliance Committee and the NAR 2005/2007 Strategic Reserves Investments Committee. He is a past President of the Gwinnett County Board of REALTORS (NAMAR) (1990), the Atlanta Chapter of the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) (1991) and the Georgia Association of REALTORS (2002).

In past years David has been a member of the Board of Directors for the Atlanta Commercial Board of Realtors and has served as Vice-President and Treasurer for the GAR.

David has been awarded the second highest sales award, the Phoenix Award, by both the Gwinnett County Board of REALTORS (1991) and the Atlanta Commercial Board of REALTORS (1996). And he has been awarded the highest sales award, the Silver Phoenix Award, in 2006 by the Atlanta Commercial Board of Realtors.

In 1991, he was awarded the Certified Property Manager (CPM) of the year by the Atlanta Chapter of IREM and the REALTOR of the Year by the Gwinnett County Board of REALTORS. In 1998, he was awarded the REALTOR of the Year by the Atlanta Commercial Board of REALTORS.

In 2004 David was inducted into the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR).

David earned a BBA from Georgia State University (GSU) in 1973 with a major in Real Estate and a minor in International Business. In 1980, he earned an MBA from GSU with a major in Finance and a minor in International Business.

He is currently involved in partnerships developing office condominiums in Duluth and single family housing in Augusta, Georgia as well as his brokerage business.

He is a decorated Viet Nam veteran (bronze star) and a member of the Atlanta Viet Nam Veterans Business Association.

David is married to Lynn (a fellow realtor and 1997 President of the Augusta Board of REALTORS.) They have four children and make their home in Duluth, Georgia.